ACHIEVEMENTS 1987

*Saint Joseph's College
Division Of General Studies
Brooklyn, New York*

EDUCATION

By Marisa V. Jones

Class Of 1987

Education is like the changing of the seasons.

Education is necessary for different reasons:

It reveals the unknown like the seedlings of spring,

It puts heat in our souls like the sun of summer,

It makes myths lifeless like the leaves of autumn; and

It preserves our minds like the snows of winter;

Education endorses Saint Joseph's College;

An institution of my pleasing.

A TIME OF ACHIEVEMENT

We honor you, the graduating class of 1987. You have achieved the Bachelor of Science degree from the Division of General Studies, often while maintaining and advancing full-time professional careers and managing the many demands of family life. As a result, you have grown immeasurably.

We celebrate your ambition, drive, and intellectual attainments. We hope that your baccalaureate degree will motivate you to strive for greater achievements in the future. The members of the Administration, Faculty, and Staff of the Division of General Studies

*Sister George Aquin O'Connor, Ph.D.
President*

*Sister Mary Florence Burns,
Ph.D.
Academic Vice President and Dean*

*Thomas G. Travis, Ph.D.
Dean, Division of General Studies*

To the Graduates of 1987,

A college yearbook and the occasion of graduation have been long associated with one another. Each in its way serves to point our thoughts in the direction of personal reflection. And together they function as witness to this highly significant event in your life. The attainment of a college degree is a laudable accomplishment. It is the culmination of years of effort, sacrifice, and dedication. Under the best of circumstances, it is an undertaking of major proportions. How much greater, then, is the achievement when it is done by persons who are simultaneously maintaining families and careers.

This, of course, is the norm of the adult learner. It is the special burden that the mature individual committed to education and personal advancement must bear. Yet it is a burden that is not without rewards. You are a better person today than when you started at St. Joseph's. You have gained knowledge and with it a measure of wisdom and freedom. So, too, have you developed in friendship—a fact which your yearbook should keep you from forgetting.

As you turn its pages, think with appreciation on all the friends, faculty, and staff members who were there to support you in your efforts. Reflect also on the love and understanding that was given by those closest to you. Graduation is not an individual achievement. It is the product of many people working together, a time for shared celebration. Again this year, I would like to thank Daniel Beni for his tireless commitment to making the yearbook worthy of the milestone it chronicles. Thanks also go to Christina Gryzic who provided invaluable assistance in the preparation of the 1987 ACHIEVEMENTS.

*Thomas G. Travis, Dean
Division of General Studies*

*Daniel Beni,
Preceptor in Health Administration and Achievements Coordinator*

To the Graduates of 1987,

The making of a successful yearbook requires the combined efforts of a host of individuals working together as a team. I would like to express my appreciation to all those who labored so diligently and with such enthusiasm, to make this, our fifth yearbook, a glowing success. In particular, I would like to thank Joan Campbell, Marisa Jones, and James Nteful, the volunteers of the class of 1987, who submitted material and tirelessly gave of their time in "signing up" their fellow graduates for yearbook portraits. Finally, my special thanks must be extended to Eileen Mullen, Christina Gryziec, and Jacqueline Garcia, whose administrative support, constant encouragement, and helpful assistance made it possible for ACHIEVEMENTS '87 to become a reality.

Sincerely,

Daniel Beni

The entering students graduated from a variety of nursing programs and most are working full-time or part-time in hospitals and other health care agencies as staff nurses, some in nursing supervisory positions. The curriculum is designed to increase the registered nurse's clinical practice skills, and to assist them in the development of leadership skills appropriate to beginning professional practice. The utilization of nursing theory and research is emphasized throughout the program.
